An Empowering Session for Anyone Working with Youth!

Tuesday, October 20, 2009

12:30-1:45p.m.

Hawkeye Community College/ Tama Hall/ rm107A

All students need a safe, supportive learning environment including those who identify as lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender (GLBT), are perceived to be, or have GLBT centered families.

Are our schools safe for GLBT students? Learn about, discuss, and experience the effects of bias and harassment on students and learn about the legal rights of these youth. This session would be beneficial to anyone who currently is or will be working with youth populations.
